

MEDIA ALERT

SPH MEDIA APPOINTS NEW BOARD MEMBER

Singapore, 31 May 2023 — SPH Media is pleased to announce the appointment of Ms Quah Ley Hoon (柯丽芬) to the board of SPH Media Holdings Pte. Ltd with effect from 1 June 2023.

Ley Hoon has wide experience in the private and public sectors. She is currently the Group Chief Corporate Officer of CapitaLand Investment, overseeing corporate matters relating to group communications, organisational culture development, talent and people, legal, procurement and administration, as well as government relations.

From 2013 to 2018, Ley Hoon was with Mediacorp as Chief Editor of CNA, covering current affairs. Besides overseeing international news production for a year as well as English programmes and documentaries by the current affairs team, she was also involved in the media's transformation efforts.

Ley Hoon also has more than 15 years of work experience in the public sector, working in various ministries, including the Ministry of Trade and Industry, then Ministry of the Environment, Prime Minister's Office, then Ministry of Community, Youth and Sports, Ministry of Finance, as well as the Chief Executive of the Maritime and Port Authority of Singapore.

Issued by SPH Media

For media queries, please contact:

Francis Mah
Corporate Marketing & Communications
SPH Media
Email: mahys@sph.com.sg

About SPH Media

SPH Media is a leading media group, with operations in the publishing of newspapers, magazines, and books in both print and digital editions. It also owns and operates other businesses such as radio stations and outdoor media. The mission of SPH Media is to be the trusted source of news on Singapore and Asia, to represent the communities that make up Singapore, and to connect them to the world. The businesses are held by SPH Media Trust, a public company limited by guarantee. For more information on SPH Media, please visit sph.com.sg, and our social media channels on Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn, and YouTube.